Dear applicant,

Many thanks for taking the time to consider an application for employment with us here at Kelmscott. If successful, you would be joining us at a very exciting time. It is my fourth year here as Headteacher and it is a job I feel privileged to carry out. We are a school on a journey, and we would like the right candidate to play an integral part.

Kelmscott is a special place to work within the E17 community, a comprehensive school where we 'Put Learning First'. We have a very collaborative staff who work together to get the best out of themselves and our students. We are proud that our students come from a range of different backgrounds (fifty different languages spoken at last count) with a diverse range of cultures and heritage. We all enjoy learning from one another's experiences and we believe passionately that this equips all of us with the skills we need, to make a positive contribution to our community and beyond.

The vision for the school is as follows:

We want to develop happy, well rounded young people through an exciting and engaging everyday experience that allows our students to compete confidently on a global stage. We are not an exam factory, our goal is to develop the whole person and what goes on outside the classroom, in terms of co-curricular, is just as important as what goes on in the classroom.

In order for this to happen we work very hard to create the optimum conditions for our teachers to teach and our students to learn. This begins with Disruption Free learning (DFL). Every morning our day starts with a check during registration to ensure that students are properly equipped for their lessons. This way learning is not disrupted. Behaviour at Kelmscott is excellent. A consistent approach to rewarding good behaviour and dealing with poor behaviour is adopted by all staff both inside the classroom and out. The emphasis is very much on rewarding good behaviour and we have a 5:1 ratio in operation for rewards to consequence points. This engenders a positive ethos and a working environment that both staff and students enjoy working in.

SDP priorities for this year include the following:

1. Leadership
2. Teaching and learning
3. Pastoral Support
4. Climate action and sustainability

One of our unique selling points is our Tutor Reading Programme that sees all of our students being read to each morning for twenty minutes. Ambitious texts such as Brick Lane and Animal Farm are enjoyed by our students exposing them to 60,000 more words, over their five years here with us, to bolster their vocabularies.

Staff are well looked after at Kelmscott and staff turnover is low. We have flexible working for teaching staff, with two opportunities a fortnight for staff to 'work from anywhere' – professional trust is very important to us. We actively seek and plan opportunities for staff to develop in whatever role they have at the school. We want you to be the very best you can possibly be and are confident we can help in that regard. Work life balance is a priority for us, we recognise and encourage our staff to look after themselves, and their families, as well as their job here with us.

As well as a supportive and friendly environment, Kelmscott offers a range of interesting employee benefits including:

- Regular staff breakfast

Kelmscott School

“Putting Learning First”

- Reduced gym membership at Walthamstow Leisure Centre
- No staff meeting either side of a school holiday

Our GCSE outcomes in the last two years have been very positive. In 2022 we made huge improvements in our outcomes for all headline measures. Last summer, against a national backdrop of grades falling, we managed to improve yet further. This provides a great platform on which to build.

If shortlisted, we look forward to welcoming you to Kelmscott so we can show you all the fantastic things we are up to. We hope very much that the successful candidate can bring lots of energy and new ideas, of their own, to the role.

I look forward to meeting you.

Mr Sam Jones
Headteacher

Support Staff Testimonials

Brodie Cunningham – Cover and Exams Officer

I have been working at Kelmscott for just over 2 years now, and there is no place I would rather be. The team here is very welcoming and friendly, and I always feel supported in my role. There are plenty of opportunities to learn and improve here at Kelmscott, and the friendly atmosphere makes for a fantastic environment for both staff and pupils.

Stephen Madge – School Business Manager

I have worked at Kelmscott for 17 years now, starting off as a Reprographics Technician to the Business Manager role I have now. I would not have developed my career here if it wasn't for the strong support of the senior leadership team, and the rich CPD opportunities which are available. I am often encouraged to develop my skill set further with training or by sharing good practice with my very knowledgeable colleagues, which enables me to be more efficient at work.

The students are well behaved and the teaching staff here have an extremely high value of care for their education and their wellbeing. It's a very pleasant school community; every day is different and I'm always smiling!

Sliz Gillard – Teaching Assistant

I have worked at Kelmscott school for 4 years in two different, but equally enjoyable roles. Kelmscott is an ambitious and nurturing school with supportive leadership, which allows both staff and students to flourish. It is a great learning environment for a new member of staff, who wishes to embark on a career in education and offers plenty of CPD opportunities. The pastoral care for students and staff alike, is outstanding. Student behaviour is excellent. Kelmscott is also invested in the wider community, with its own food bank and imminent uniform bank. It's a wonderful school, of which I am extremely proud to be a part of.

Teaching staff Testimonials

Sultana Ahmed – Assistant Head of Year 9

I have been working at Kelmscott as a Religion, Philosophy and Ethics teacher for four years now and have found myself to enjoy it here more and more each year. At Kelmscott you will find students who have a love for learning and teachers who have a passion and commitment to put learning first. This combination allows both students and staff to thrive. I am currently Assistant Head of Year 9 and I consider myself to be fortunate to be a part of a supportive pastoral team, and work in a school that provides opportunities for teachers to develop and grow in their careers.

Senan Hill – Main Scale Teacher

It's a great feeling to wake up in the morning and look forward to coming in to work. Kelmscott has a friendly and open environment with students and staff which encourages collaboration, and provides the support to bring ideas into fruition. At Kelmscott I'm surrounded by staff who are both committed and dedicated to their students and who care about each child's individual success. The support that we get and the freedom to try new things to make sure that our students succeed is invaluable. There are firm expectations for behaviour and learning, and students at Kelmscott are driven, determined and approachable, making them a pleasure to teach. I have been privileged to benefit from excellent CPD, whereby departments can learn from one another. I feel inspired by the amazing work and support of my colleagues, and this in turn is reflected in the students.

Monique Reid – Assistant Headteacher

The Kelmscott family is unique. As a long serving member of staff, who arrived from Jamaica as a qualified teacher in 2001, I am part of a committed group of staff. We believe passionately in the limitless potential of every young person we serve. Education is transformative and students benefit from a high aspiration, high standards culture. We develop character, grit and a love of lifelong learning.

Student Testimonial

Bianca Burnei – Head Student Year 11

Kelmscott has played a critical role in shaping who I am today. I have grown and developed the confidence to pursue my ambition and to even try new things. Through the supportive environment offered by Kelmscott, I was able to step out of my comfort zone and become the best version of myself. From seizing various opportunities and clubs that Kelmscott offered, I was able to develop new, useful skills like leadership and fostering a positive mindset. Kelmscott has taught me to keep an open mind to any new opportunities and to overcome any obstacle. The teachers were always there to guide and support me, pushing me to reach my full potential. They not only equipped me with a solid foundation of knowledge and skills that I continue to build on but they also helped me explore my passions.

Since year 7, my goals have changed and evolved. I thought I had a general idea of what I wanted to achieve. However, as Kelmscott gave me the chance to explore new subjects and interests - I gained so many incredible opportunities that will completely change my future. I am pleased that I was able to represent Kelmscott as their Head student as this has been a great achievement and learning experience.

Kai Molloy – Head Student Year 11

I have been a student at Kelmscott for nearly 5 years and have really enjoyed my time here. When I started in year 7 I was inspired by the head boy to work hard and try to achieve great things. I have participated in many extra-curricular activities, including being sports captain, youth health champion, climate ambassador and peer mentor. These opportunities have broadened my skills and mindset and helped me to think about my future.

Kelmscott offers lessons that other schools don't and I have really benefited from this. I take classical Greek and Ancient History and these are my favourite subjects. I have been to see many Greek tragedies as part of my learning and this has inspired me to continue my appreciation of the arts. I have always loved visiting museums and the history department have taken us on many trips to exclusive exhibitions which have deepened my understanding of our topic areas.

I am coming to the end of my time at Kelmscott and when I reflect, it has been a great experience. I have made good friends, had inspiring teachers and developed my skills and knowledge - all of which will give me a head start in college.
