Education • Foundation • Trust

St Paul's Way Trust School is a highly successful Ofsted Outstanding 'Through school and Founding school' within the University School's Trust. All our students matter, expectations of all the members within our community are high and personal achievement and fulfilment are valued and sought after. To this end we seek to provide the highest level of academic provision enriched with an extensive programme of activities

The Trustees and Governors, is seeking to appoint an outstanding Teacher of Mathematics.

This is an excellent career opportunity for a colleague who is passionate about the entitlement of young people to become confident in maths. Working within a vibrant and highly successful faculty, you will be an outstanding classroom teacher with a passionate commitment to the progress of all students in our fully comprehensive and heavily oversubscribed school. The successful candidate will have an unwavering belief in the potential of every student. (S)he will do what it takes to ensure that students achieve their best, and will have the contagious enthusiasm for the subject which excites and motivates students.

The maths faculty is one of the highest performing in the school. Outstanding student progress in maths consistently places us amongst the highest performing schools in the country and mathematics is our most popular subject in the sixth form, with 60% of students studying it at A Level.

We also teach further maths and many students go on to study maths or engineering at university.

STEM subjects are at the heart of our provision. Our exceptional links with Queen Mary University, King's College London, Warwick University and the University of East London shape an inspirational curriculum.

In March 2013, Ofsted described the school as 'Outstanding' in every category, including the VI Form. The school was commended for its "relentless pursuit of scholarship and excellence".

Our award-winning building is situated in the heart of East London. Professor Brian Cox CBE is one of our Patrons.

If you would like to play your part in delivering outstanding provision for our students, we would very much like to hear from you.
